

NW NATIVE PLANT GARDEN

I-5'S EXIT 215 ON THE WAY TO BC

BONHOEFFER BOTANICAL GARDENS

Exit 215 - Interstate 5 Freeway
2420 300th St. NW Stanwood, WA 98292
www.plc215.org

BONHOEFFER GARDENS NW GLASS ART

LEGACY COLLECTION OF PILCHUCK GLASS SCHOOL ARTISTS' WORK

The Pilchuck Glass School (3 miles away) is renowned for training artists who went onto successful livelihoods selling their art. The Freeborn Reserve's Farm, Preschool, Church and Gardens display signature pieces of over 70 individual artists; the 3 below are found in Sophie's Coffee Shop & Herbarium (under development).

Admission is Free

A joint venture of the Pilchuck Learning Center and Freeborn Church, the Freeborn Reserve is intended as a gift to future generations.*

Joey Kirkpatrick/Flora Mace
Twin Iris

Interested in History?

View cabins built ~150 years ago when the Snohomish County Census listed 44 pioneers, all single men.

William Morris
Christ's Cross

front of card : Richard Royal Optic Lens

Interested in Ecology?

Explore the Gardens' level paths, rain-day kiosks, and our area's flora extinction story; view most of Pacific NW's native species.

Interested in Life?

Visit a memorial for individuals and the millions sent to early deaths in the last 75 years because of indifference, their beliefs, or because they were "different."

Veruska Vagen
Dietrich & Sophie

An Invitation - Directions

Visit this private garden, open daily (daylight hours); enter under WA Recreational Use Statute – RCW 4.24.200 & .210 allowing public recreational use including nature study and viewing or enjoying historical archaeological, scenic, or scientific sites on R-5 land.

* Donations can be made out to the tax-exempt nonprofit, PLC-Bonhoeffer Gardens, PO Box 280, Stanwood, WA 98292. *help to propagate, assist migration, & reestablish native plants; e.g., last year we planted Golden Chinquapins in 150 locations!

